SATURDAY, MARCH 5

10 A.M.-2:30 P.M.

*The Chesapeake Bay Beach Club,
Stevensville, MD*

ABOUT the AUTHORS

DONNA JACKSON NAKAZAWA ~ Childhood Disrupted: How Your Biography Becomes Your Biology, and How You Can Heal details the link between emotional trauma, suffered as a child, and the impact on one's emotional life as an adult and the adverse effect on physical health, longevity, and overall wellbeing.

SARAH L. KAUFMAN ~ The Art of Grace: On Moving Well Through Life - The Washington Post's dance critic illuminates the importance of grace in the small moments of everyday life and encourages spending time on unnecessary kindnesses, and to appreciate and enact grace in every dimension of life.

KAREN HOUPPERT ~ Chasing Gideon: The Elusive Quest for Poor People's Justice is the story of our broken criminal justice system and a close look at the failed promise of the landmark 1963 Supreme Court decision Gideon v Wainwright which promised a lawyer to those who couldn't afford one.

About Saint Martin's Ministries

Saint Martin's Ministries helps low income mid-shore families meet their basic needs of food, clothing and housing while respecting and affirming their dignity. For 32 years Saint Martin's has been fighting poverty on the Eastern Shore. Your support makes this possible!
